SUIT INVOLVES AN INCREASE IN WATER RENTALS HERE

Suit Brought Against Maysville Water Company Asking Return of Excessive Rental Charged. Plaintiff Intends to Fight Case.

Attorney A. D. Cole brought suit in the Mason Quarterly court Tuesday for Mr. Harry C. Curran against the Maysville Water Company asking the return of seven dollars alleged to be an excessive charge made for water rentals by the company against the plaintiff who is a user of city water.

In his petition the plaintiff states that for years he has been charged a rate of $21 and that without changing the amount of water consumed, the water company at the last payment charged and collected from him a rate of $28 for the identical same service. The suit is for recovery of the seven dollars alleged to be excessive charges.

While the suit involves only a small amount of money, it affects a large number of people in Maysville as it is understood that rates have been increased considerably throughout the city during the past half-year.

Mr. Curran said Tuesday that he intended to fight the case through to a final settlement and in this case there will be much interest taken as quite a number of other people contend that their rates have been raised by the company.

SOCIAL WELL ATTENDED.

The Halloween social given by the Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. church Monday evening drew a large crowd in spite of the hard down-pour of rain. The decorations were conceded to be the most unique the church has ever had. The "big fun" was the "chamber of horrors" through which all were required to pass. And they will not soon forget what they saw and felt there. Just mention it to anyone who passed through and they will shiver at the thought. But everyone enjoyed to the full the entertainment. A large brass and reed orchestra enlivened the evening with choice music, and most delicious pumpkin pies and coffee were served.

BIG SHIPMENT OF COAL AND STEEL LOCKED THROUGH

The wonderful advantages of the river dam is already showing itself. Monday night and Tuesday six large fleets of barges of coal and steel, running from eight to a dozen barges each are being passed through the locks. This would fill from 12 to 20 large trains of cars. But for the dam at this time this would not be passing by river. We surely have great things ahead in river freighting and in the consequent benefit to all our Ohio River cities.

OVER HALF TOBACCO FAIR BOOTHS ARE NOW SOLD

Dance To Be Given Every Night During the Five Day Fair With Big Mask Ball Friday Evening.

Committees of the American Legion in charge of the 1921 Corn and Tobacco Fair are receiving encouragement in their preparations for the fair and indications now are that there will be one of the best fairs of Maysville's history held.

Already more than half of the booths to be erected in the warehouse have been rented and calls are coming so rapidly that it is thought that by the close of this week all booths will be taken. Those desiring booth space should see the committee at the Farm Bureau office at once. All booths are rented for $12.50 each.

Arrangements have been made to have a big dance each evening of the fair and on Friday evening the big mask ball will be given and the music will be the best obtainable.

Maysville is a Third Class City

Court of Appeals Grants Injunction Asked By Candidates for Councilmen Thereby Ruling Maysville A City of Third Class.

County Clerk J. J. Owens received Tuesday afternoon at about 2 o'clock a telegram from Roy B. Speck, Clerk of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, which reads as follows:

"Motion to order injunction granted sustained. Order sent Mason Circuit Clerk."

This means that Mr. Owens is enjoined from printing the Maysville city ballots as on the Fourth Class city plan and will require him to publish the ballots on the Third Class City plan leaving off the ballots the candidates for Chief of Police, City Assessor, Collector and Treasurer and City Clerk. Under the charter of third class cities these officers will be elected by the new council.

Candidates for councilmen will make the race in all six wards of the city instead of in the one ward in which they live and desire to represent.

There are various other changes and conditions under which candidates in third class cities must come. All candidates for councilman must be "freeholders" which will probably eliminate several who have heretofore announced themselves as council candidates.

This decision of the Court of Appeals also has its effect upon the City Board of Education election and will mean that a Board of nine members will be elected instead of a board of six as in a Fourth class city. The members of this board will be elected by the city at large as the councilmen are elected and by ballot.

County Clerk Owens will order the ballots for the city printed at once and they will be completed and distributed in plenty of time for the election on next Tuesday.

ARCHDEACON'S STORE AT GRAFTON, W. VA., ROBBED

Native Maysvillian In Business at Grafton Loses $1,000 in Merchandise By Theft In Store.

The following from the Grafton (W. Va.) Sentinel tells of the robbery on last Thursday of Mr. William Archdeacon's store at that place:

Robbers who last night entered the clothing store of William Archdeacon on Latrobe street and succeeded in making their escape with merchandise valued in the neighborhood of $1,000, are being hunted today by local police authorities and a representative of the Freeland Detective Agency of Wheeling. Bloodhounds, which were brought here from Fairmont this morning shortly after the robbery was discovered by employees who came early to open up the store, failed to pick up the trail of the thieves after searching for about half an hour.

The robbery was one of the most daring that has even been accomplished in this city. Entrance to the building was made through a front window in the small apartment over the alley between the store and D. Bonafede's confectionary. A long iron pipe was placed to the window, it is thought, and the thieves apparently had climbed up it to the window which they broke, unlocked, and opened. Prints of their fingers on the window glass and sills were taken this morning by authorities and may be of possible assistance in running down the outlaws.

UNDERGOES SERIOUS OPERATION.

Miss Gertrude Lowe underwent a very serious surgical operation Monday and is reported as getting along quite satisfactorily.

The Orangeburg Christian Church will give a social next Saturday night, November 5th. Cakes, cream and pies will be served. Out of courtesy to the Methodist revival the supper will not be served during the hours of their service. Candidates invited. 1Nov-1

MAYSVILLE CHAMPIONS BY ALL DOPE FIGURED LATELY

Complication in Which Winchester, Cynthiana and Lexington Have Been Is Closed By Sunday's Game.

Winchester, Cynthiana and Lexington became more entangled Sunday towards arriving at a champion of the Blue Grass when Cynthiana defeated the Lexington Reos at Cynthiana by 11 to 1 score.

All three clubs have refused to acknowledge the Maysville club as champions for reasons unknown to us. But, nevertheless, we cannot be talked out of it and this simple process of reasoning will prove that the Maysville team should be champions. About a month ago by inflicting several defeats on both Cynthiana and the Reos as well as other Blue Grass towns the Winchester team claimed to be the champions. Our club alone since it had never played the Hustlers before challenged them and won three of the four games, one resulting in a tie. Since then the Reos have increased their percentage to two games out of three with the Hustlers and they laid their claim to the honor and challenged Maysville which by that time had disbanded and to behold here comes the lowly clan from Cynthiana inflicting the largest score of the season upon the Reos.

The easiest way out of it and by rights the only way in which it can be reasoned to any conclusion is for those clubs to acknowledge Maysville as champions by right of no defeats with those clubs and winning from an undefeated Lexington Reos here times.

Cynthiana, Ky., Oct. 31. — Cynthiana defeated the Lexington Reos here Sunday, 11 to 1. The locals hit both Alexander and Morton hard, while King held the Reos helpless except in seventh score.

THIRD STREET GROCERY STORE ROBBED MONDAY

Thieves Gain Entrance To Winter Grocery Store By Breaking Through Rear Door.

Some time Monday evening thieves entered the M. O. Winter grocery store adjoining the Public Ledger building in Third street by breaking the rear door and then breaking the glass in the door proper and lifting the heavy wooden beam used to secure the rear entrance.

The thieves ransacked the entire store and went through the large safe which was left unlocked and contained nothing but papers and books. One drawer in the safe to which the owner had no key and which had not been opened since he owned the safe, was broken open but there was nothing in it.

The cash register, which is very hard to work and which contained about two dollars in small change, was tampered with by the thieves but they were unable to open it. Several pieces of meat, sacks of flour and a bag and it is thought that other merchandise was also taken but it would quantity of soap has been found missing hard to tell just what was taken. No money was found by the thieves. Police have no clue to the robbers.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the First District Parent-Teachers' Association will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock instead of the usual time which should have been Friday week. The meeting is being called early in order to make plans for having a booth at the Corn and Tobacco Fair, and every member is especially urged to be present. Much business of importance is to be transacted and the votes will be taken for the prize, which is to be a cash prize of $2.50 to be given to the room having the most members present, and to be used to buy something needed in that room. Come, and vote for your child's room.

WALLACE'S LIVERADE is a vegetable preparation prescribed by physicians for liver ailments and does not contain any calomel.

BUSINESS MEN WILL HELP SIGN UP THIS COUNTY'S TOBACCO

Business Men To Take To The Country Thursday In Effort to Have all Mason County Farmers Sign Tobacco to Co-Operative.

Maysville business men will take a hand in signing Mason county tobacco growers up solidly for the co-operative selling plan on next Thursday when a general holiday in local business will be observed and shop and store managers will travel in their automobiles throughout the county endeavoring to interest the remaining growers who have not yet signed in the co-operative selling plan.

Despite the very disagreeable weather Monday evening, there was a splendid representation of the local business interests at a mass meeting held at the Council Chamber. At this meeting Messrs. J. N. Kehoe and Stanley F. Reed explained the proposition thoroughly to the businessmen showing them their vital interest in the success of the farmers' undertaking and securing their pledge of support.

Mayor Russell will issue a proclamation proclaiming Thursday a City holiday and the majority of the business men will co-operate with the farmers in this forward movement by lending them all the assistance possible in the movement.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE HALF-HOLIDAY IN SCHOOLS.

At the regular monthly meeting of the City Board of Education held Monday night at the High School building, November 11th, Armistice Day, was declared a half-holiday. The board also gave their permission to the members of the boys' band making music for the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge on their opening morning. Nothing other than routine business was transacted.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Yago, of Cincinnati, Ohio, have returned home after a visit with their sister, Mrs. F. S. Bierley.

ENDORSED AT HOME.

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Maysville Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Maysville adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

D. S. Stout, 22 East Second street, Maysville, says: "Just after my recovery from pneumonia, my kidneys began to give me trouble. My back had a steady dull ache and it hurt me to breathe. My eyes would get puffy underneath. I knew my kidneys were in bad shape and something would have to be done to check the disorder so I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. It didn't take long to rid me of my trouble. I take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

SIMPLE MEASURES PROTECT YOUNG TREES FROM RODENTS

Although winter weather reduces the amount of damage done to trees by insects it brings snow and sleet which make it possible for field mice and rabbits to gnaw young trees without the knowledge of unsuspecting owners and cause losses almost equal to those from insect pests, according to orchard specialists. Fruit growers can prevent this injury and reduce the losses caused by these rodents by placing corn or tobacco stalks, newspapers of woven wire netting about their trees before winter arrives, specialists at the College of Agriculture say. Keeping orchards free from rubbish and weeds also has been found helpful in reducing the damage done by rodents.

Despite the fact that the original cost is greater than that of corn or tobacco stalks, woven wire netting is the most practical means of protecting trees since it can be used for from five to eight years while the corn or tobacco stalks or newspapers must be replaced each year. A piece of woven wire 18 inches high and from 18 to 24 inches long when bent around the tree and fastened to the ends will stand out far enough to protect the tree and give sufficient room for the tree to move several years growth. The mesh of the netting should not be larger than one inch. In case a deep snow falls during the winter the tree may be protected by drawing up the cylinder of wire and packing the snow at the base of the tree. This is done to protect the tree from the mice which do their work under the crust of snow and the rabbits which work on top.

If paper, corn or tobacco stalks are used these should be tied about the trunk of the tree, the stalks being stood on end. It is necessary to remove these in the spring since they furnish a excellent hiding place for insect pests. Commercial rabbit paints also may be used as repellents in preventing gnawing of trees by rodents.

It is estimated that there is $750,000 wasted in a day in men's ready-made clothing industry, due to there being too many models and cloth styles for the demands of the public.

New York Letter

New York. — Fall shopping is at its height. From four to five the Avenue is crowded every day with those who have already bought and are showing off their new possessions, and those who are on the eternal look for "just what I want." Even if the day is warm the lady of a new coat with chocking fur collar is not deterred in her purpose to appear in the afternoon promenade. The windows become lovelier every year. The art of window decoration become more and more refined. The study put into the various schemes is astounding. Here will be a classical stone background, temple like, to give setting to the single model swathed in a luxurious chinchilla wrap. Over there rich hangings of purple velvet aglow from the amber lights in tall standards form background for sheer little blouses of delicate fabrics. The high class trade require this sort of thing, and it certainly is effective, yet when I went over to another avenue not very far away I found another crowd not buying with the same zeal. The windows were not so lovely, but the attempt was there — more artificial flowers and roccoco effect, but the same idea of showing off as New York loves to do.

—NY—
It is not likely that the high sounding name, Mr. Donald Robert Perry Marquis, would be identified with anything so gauche as "The Old Soak" and yet that is our own Don Marquis, one of the rarely good columnists in New York. D. Appleton & Co., have issued another book under this grand nom entitled "Carter and Other People" which gives full opportunity for his abilities as a satirist, psychologist, essayist, poet and what not. Humor with Mr. Marquis amounts to a philosophy of life, and these stories help to make it an excellent solution for the complexities which so often beset one.

—NY—
We have a play on the boards now where the action unfolds in the year 1933. And what do you suppose it is very far away I found another crowd not buying with the same zeal. The win-ment" is not too apt for our audiences, and yet the author, Clemence Dane, refends it as being from the Mosiac law as described in the twenty-fourth chapter of Deuteronomy—but then a little thing like that won't trouble the average New Yorker. The important thing is that it is really a remarkable play, written with poignancy and conviction and excellently acted. The cast boasts of Janet Beecher and Allan Pollock, both well known and capable, but it is one Katherine Cornell who has completely wormed her way into the affections of theater goers here, by giving as memorable a performance as has been seen in years. She is what a girl may be like ten years from now, and it is the promise, personally I am content to see my young sister grow up.

—NY—
We no more finish with the World "Series", and get baseball in moth balls for the winter, than New York becomes the clearing house for that sport of brawn and spirit concerned with the oval shaped ball. The railway stations on any Saturday are simply glorified college town depots. One may see the college widow, the cheer leader, the yowling sophomore, and every college figure, the whole seasoned with a lively sprinkling of the old grads, who, let it be told, are much more ridiculous than the younger generation, scurrying about the stations, banners, chrysanthemums and all, on their way to the big games being played out here now. In addition we have the Army and Navy officers in their smart uniforms vying with brokers and merchants to make the early trains and take their places in the cheering sections, and root for the old alma maters. This place does stay young somehow for all its sophistication.

—NY—
If the Outside public has forgotten William Travers Jerome, he of fame for the relentless prosecution of Harry Thaw, let it be told that he has "come back." He has literally taken off his coat in the interests of Henry H. Curran, Republican-coalition candidate for Mayor of Gotham town. He is here with the old fire and Mr. Hyman has no supporter who draws the same enthusiastic crowd that this most engaging speaker gets and holds. His irony is as good as his humor and he gives of both to the great discomfiture of Tammany. On esuspects that the silver tongued Burke Cochran will be called in in the last hours to offset the interest Jerome is attracting to the Republican wagon.

—NY—
We will always love a hero. There have been so many of them lately, that one seldom stopped in the wending of his way to watch a mere parade where some grand somebody was receiving the honor due him. But heroes are in style again in these parts. In the last week we have had the jaunty sea dog, Admiral Beatty, and an added attraction in his rich and charming American wife, she of the Field house of Chicago; the intrepid General Diaz, the war idol of Italy; and the unofficial Venizelos of Greece, recently out of power in his own country, but done the compliment of representing the little land at the Conference on the Limitation of Armaments. We have paraded for them, given the freedom of thirty away almost lavishly, run up the flags, and best of all been most happy doing it. Mr. Carlyle was right. All the world loves a hero.

THE HOME TOWN.

We live in this town because we believe in it. We believe in it because it is a good town, regardless of its few defects and its people are the peers of those to be found anywhere.

This town may not have the wealth of some more favored communities, but it has character, and character is a possession which can not be purchased with gold.

If you believe in your home town you will like it, and if you like it no effort toward its improvement will be too great for you.

Again we ask you to have faith in your own powers; to also have faith in your own town.

When you feel like criticising it, check kth thought before it is spoken. You can always find something good to say instead, and even then the half of the truth will never be told.

It is a good town now, but faith, loyalty and united action, will make it a better one.

Our faith in this town, brother, is simply faith in you, because the town is a collection of yours.

Surely your faith is not less than ours.

Let us unite — let us act — for a more cohesive community.

12-POUND SWEET POTATO IS PRESENTED GOVERNOR.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 31.—A twelve-pound sweet potato, accompanied by the wish that "Old Ring may prove his gratitude and faith in ultimate emancipation by catching you a fine fat 'possum to be served with it," has been received by Gov. Edwin P. Morrow from Dr. J. F. Hutton, Fredonia, who had promised it to the Governor on his recent visit to Princeton. The potato was dug October 14 and has lost some weight since, but still holds rank among the big potatoes. It is of the Nancy Hall variety.

SWIFT & CO. BUY 3,500 CATTLE FOR $100,000.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Swift & Co., Chicago, through its Central Kentucky representative, Henry S. Caywood, North Middletown, has just completed the purchase in the Bluegrass of 3,500 head of fat cattle, averaging 1,400 pounds, at from $7 to $7.75 per hundred. These purchases represent approximately $400,000, and the cattle are being shipped now to different stock yards of Swift & Co.

TOBACCO WAREHOUSE AT HENDERSON IS BURNED.
Henderson, Ky., Oct. 31.—Fire early yesterday destroyed the Miller & Board loose leaf warehouse and contents, causing an estimated damage of $50,000. Saturday night a Halloween skating rink party was held in the warehouse and the theory is held that the fire started from a lighted cigarette that had been thrown on the floor. The loss is covered partially by insurance.

MRS. JOHN D. TASH.

Mrs. John D. Tash will be remembered as the beautiful, attractive and popular Miss Lillie B. Smith, who was the youngest child of the late James and Ann Smith. She was born and reared and married from the old home on West Second street where the Misses Pecor and Mr. James Pecor live.

She numbered her friends by her acquaintances both here in her old home and her home in Chicago where her happy married life was spent. She was a life long member of the Presbyterian church which she loved and gave of her strength and means. She was never happier than when giving pleasure to others and to say she had a most radiant personality expresses it mildly. She will be missed sadly not only by her immediate family, but by a wide circle of friends.

Besides her husband and two children, Mrs. Paul Russell Henderson and J. Donald Tash, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. T. F. Rogers, of DeLand, Florida, and two brothers, Dr. T. H. N. Smith and Chas. E. Smith and a number of nieces and nephews. Three of her babies are laid to rest in the family lot where she desired to be placed. Services will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. John Barbour.
